FleishmanHillard Fishburn

London

FHF London is an agency of over 200 unique individuals working together to create inspiring, award-winning work for our impressive list of clients. Based on the South Bank near the Tate Modern and Borough Market, we are the second largest office in the FleishmanHillard global network.

Our talented teams operate across practice groups including Healthcare, Consumer, Corporate Comms, Public Affairs, Medical Education, Technology, Creative Studio, Social & Innovation and Intelligence. The collective expertise spans industry sectors as diverse as FMCG, Financial Services, Pharmaceuticals, Travel & Sports.

As an agency we celebrate individuals' strengths and ambitions - both professionally and personally - encouraging them to be themselves and to bring their personal passions to work. Joining FHF brings the benefits of belonging to a top global network whilst enabling individuals to grow in a genuinely entrepreneurial environment.

Thank you

FHF's Graduate Programme—March 2021

A 12 month contract dedicated to one of our practices (Corporate Comms, Technology, Healthcare, Consumer, Public Affairs, Intelligence, Creative Studio or Social & Innovation or Intelligence) with the opportunity for a permanent role upon completion. Forget making endless cups of tea (though honestly, that's great career advice, everyone loves the person who offers to make the tea), we'll be asking you to jump straight into client work, learning the ropes of being an agency practitioner. You also get the perks of working for a global agency, opportunities to visit our network of offices, Friday drinks, monthly massages as well as a competitive salary.
